

Commodore John Barry Festival, 25th June 2011 This is Wexford's newest festival and following on from its success in 2010 will again be based around the quay front in Wexford town. The events on the water will include; Sea Kayak race coming in from Rosslare (16.7km)

Cot racing finishing off the Quay front

Other kayaking & water events

On the shore there will be;

Climbing Wall and Ropes Course

RNLI Open Day

Tag Rugby & FAI

Facepainting etc

Lots of information as to how to get involved in local outdoor clubs

Come along to enjoy the action or get involved on the quay front. You never know you might surprise yourself and take up a new activity!

SeaKayaking.ie

Welcome to Seakayaking.ie the home of sea kayaking in the South East and particularly the stunning Wexford Coastline

Guided Sea Kayak trips, Skills Courses and Canoe Hire, based at Hook Head in Ireland's sunny South East Coast.

SeaKayaking.ie offers half, full or multi-day sea kayak trips through some of the stunning Coasts and Islands of the South East coast. Sea Kayaking is a fantastic way to explore the Irish Coastline and a truly exhilarating form of travel. The area around

Hook

Head and the Saltee Islands is rich in wildlife and you may be lucky enough to encounter seals, Whales, Dolphins and a huge variety of coastal birds. Whether new to the sport or experienced in sea kayaking, we will provide an unforgettable experience. Families, groups and individuals are all welcome.

All equipment is provided by us. Our Sea kayaks are long, stable and easy to control . Please Contact us on 051389550 for more details or to book.